

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH

What does the Spirit of Truth do?

194:2 (2060.6) "The first mission of this spirit is...to destroy the believer's feeling of orphanhood...to help men recall and understand the words of the Master as well as to illuminate and reinterpret his life on earth" and to lead all believers into an awareness of "ascending sonship with God."

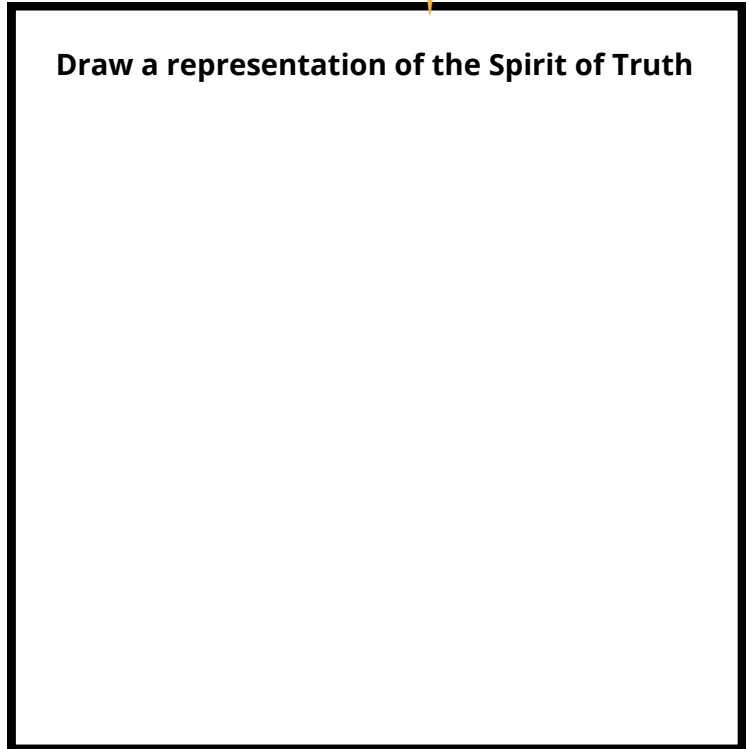

How can we connect with the Spirit of Truth?

When you first learned to walk, your parents did not pick up your feet and move them for you; they kneeled with their arms open and you felt drawn to them, but you learned to do the walking yourself. The Spirit of Truth draws you onward and provides you with a sense of what is right and good, but you must walk that path yourself. Sincere prayer can be a useful tool for this because it is a means of emptying our hearts and souls of our own opinions and egos, creating more space for the Spirit to guide us. Unlike your parents, the Spirit of Truth cannot be physically seen, and its presence may not be clear to you.

Why is this important?

The world is full of noise and material forces, and we must be vigilant in safeguarding space in our lives to connect to what is true. The Spirit of Truth allows us to connect with the divine personality of Jesus, also called Michael, our local Creator Son. We can continue to benefit from his revelation of God through the living Spirit of Truth.
